

Client Experience

Longmeadow, MA

We worked with a design partner to produce this stunning pediatrics environment, performing much of the work off-hours so that the practice could continue to function. Bold colors and curves were used to create warmth and trust. Solidus completely renovated the space, installing a large fish tank and the signature clapboard reception.

